

QUALITY POLICY

Kryler Corporation is committed to providing services regarding quality, delivery and customer service that meet or exceed customer expectations while maintaining a reasonable return on investment.

Through open communication, feedback, and training, every member of our organization is responsible for improving the effectiveness of our quality management system by:

- Maintaining and improving the quality of our products,
- Achieving our goals and objectives,
- Adhering to the requirements and effectiveness of the quality management system.